MORNING TIME

There are so many things to believe in these days. Start the day with prayer and teach them to believe in the power of Jesus in every daily situation.

DRIVE TIME

Have you tried listening to an audio daily devotion app like Keys for Kids? Dig into God's Word while you travel.

MEAL TIME

Did you know that families that eat dinner together have kids who are more likely to stick with their faith when they become young adults? Help them to believe by talking about your faith and daily mistakes so they can see grace in action.

BED TIME

What do you see that makes you believe in a God that created it all? Make a list and thank God for revealing himself to us.

PARENT TIME

As parents, there is nothing we want more than for our child to believe in a God that loves them so much he was willing to send his only Son to save us from our sinfulness. We spend so much time on academics and activities, but how much time do you spend on giving your child reasons to believe? It is a parent's legacy to pass on their belief to the next generation. Time invested this way will never be a waste!
